June 11, 2008

PALM BEACH – June 11, 2008: Laurie Kahn, president, Media Staffing Network, has received the distinct honor of being named by Radio Ink magazine as one of The 50 Most Influential Women in Radio. Kahn stands proudly among a list of distinguished honorees, every one among radio's best-known and most-respected professionals.

Joe Howard, Radio Ink editor-in-chief commented, “We’re proud to honor Laurie Kahn’s contributions to radio. She is a wonderful advocate for the industry, and elevates radio with everything she does.”

Published annually and featured in the June 2, 2008, issue of Radio Ink, the Most Influential Women in Radio™ list recognizes women whose contributions to radio enrich, inspire, and elevate both the industry and the people around them. The list is compiled through a combination of industry nominations and input from Radio Ink's editors about the women who are making a positive difference in the radio business. Included are professionals from the corporate, radio station, and radio network ranks, and across many executive levels.

Says Radio Ink Radio Publisher and CEO B. Eric Rhoads, “Each year I am more impressed by the accomplished professionals featured on our Most Influential Women in Radio list. Every one exemplifies the best of radio. Their devotion and commitment to this industry serves as an example to us all.”

Now in its tenth year, Radio Ink's Most Influential Women in Radio list has grown over the years in length and importance as more women rise to prominent posts in the radio industry. In 2000 the list gave rise to a mentoring group formed for and by women in the industry interested in building a community and offering support and guidance to their radio peers.

Howard added, “We’re proud to honor this year’s Most Influential Women in Radio. As advocates for and fans of the radio industry, their contributions are unmatched.”
